

Sinclair's decision to air "Stolen Hours" on National television is not only showing that network to be totally partisan but it is also against FCC regulations. What kind of regulatory statute do you have? We must keep our broadcast non-partisan! This should not be aired anywhere except in a partisan forum.
God Bless America